

Middlesex Agility Club - JANUARY THAW Trial Information

Thank you for entering the Middlesex Agility Club Trial on January 14 & 15, 2012 at Fleetwood Farms at 9282 Elviage Drive, London, Ontario.

Attached are the latest entry confirmations. Please review your confirmation information carefully. Please check that your dog's name, AAC number, jump height, events entered, and class are correct. If changes are required, please contact Diane Hyatt by e-mail (mac.trials@gmail.com) or by phone (519-281-4588).

Changes to this information will be emailed and/or posted on the Trials page at www.macdogs.com.

- Our judge for both days is Roger-Pierre Cote.
 - There will be no access to Fleetwood Farms on Friday, January 13.
 - No crating is allowed in the agility arena. Indoor crating is permitted only in the adjoining heated part of the building.
 - The agility building will be open by 7 am each day.
 - Check in/registration begins at 7:15 am each day.
 - AAC Dog Identification cards must be shown at registration; otherwise the dog must be measured at the trial.
 - Measuring will be from 7:15 to 7:45 am each day. Dogs may also be measured throughout the day.
 - Course walk through begins at 7:45 am each day.
 - The first dog is to be on the line to start at 8 am SHARP each day.
 - Classes will be run in the following jump height order on both days: 10", 16", 22", 26".
 - Specials and veterans will be run following the regular runs, and may be intermixed for efficiency.
 - Please have your dog on the line and ready to go promptly as soon as the judge is ready.
- ARF Ontario (Animal Rescue Foundation) will be on-site both days to provide light breakfast & lunch foods as well as beverages such as coffee, pop and water. All proceeds will benefit ARF Ontario.
